

Colorado K-12 Education: An overview (Data from 2006-07)

Increase in Colorado students identified with “special needs.”

At-risk: 29% of students are eligible for free lunch (218,571).
A 52% increase since 2001-02 (143,498).

Special Ed: 11% of students have disabilities requiring special services (83,121).
A 6% increase since 2001-02 (78,334).

ELPA: 9.5% of students are learning English as a second language (71,582).
A 95% increase since 2001-02 (36,756).

Total student enrollment continues to increase in Colorado.

- Colorado’s 178 district enrollment from 2005-06 to 2006-07 increased 11,700 students which is equivalent in size to the 17th largest district in the state.

Colorado per pupil spending falls $1,036 short of the national average.

- Colorado’s per pupil spending is $8,521.
- The national average for per pupil spending is $9,557.

Colorado invests less income in education than the national average.

- Revenue directed to Colorado K-12 education is equal to 3.12% of personal income.
- Revenue directed to K-12 education nationally is equal to 4.15% of personal income.

Colorado teachers’ earnings are $4,985 less than the national average.

- The average Colorado teacher salary is $45,831.
- The average national teacher salary is $50,816.
(Note: This is the average salary, not a base salary.)

Colorado teachers’ years of experience continues to decrease.

- In 1993, Colorado teachers averaged 13 years of experience.
- Colorado teachers average years of experience:
2002 – 10.96 yrs 2006 – 9.10 yrs 2007 – 8.97 yrs

Profile data compiled by Augenblick, Palaich & Associates, 2006-07 data.
Source: Colorado Department of Education