

Profile Data: 2009 Highlights

What is new? What has changed?

1. Student enrollment in Colorado continues to increase – conversely over 100 districts are declining (178 total)
2. Students in special education – 82,607
 - a. has decreased in number and in percentage
 - b. considerably below national average
3. Students identified as at-risk (Colorado: qualifies for free lunch)
 - a. total 30% of population or 224,137 students
 - b. a 36% increase in past 5 years
4. English Language Learners – 2 years identified and funded
 - a. are 10% of population or 75,182 students
 - b. a 112% increase in past 5 years
5. Colorado continues to increase the number of teachers
 - a. though lags in comparison to national average
 - b. Colorado average salary is $47,493 which is below national average of $52,308 (after adjusting for inflation)
6. Colorado's personal income continues to increase (towards top in nation)
 - a. The percent of personal income dedicated toward K-12 education is 3.2%.
 - b. This has decreased from last year and has trended down since 1992.
 - c. The National average is 4.2%, which has stayed consistent since 1992.