2020 Fiscal Vision

Building a Public Investment Majority

• All communities depend on Public Investments
• Each community has its own Unique Character and Public Investment Priority
• Community residents are the best spokespeople for their Priorities
• Need Communities all across the state to Define their connection to public investments and to advocate for themselves and others
• Outdated constitutional provisions keep communities from their aspirations
Vision 2020 Connects Communities

• Linked through electronic platform—Civic Network
• Sharing how communities honor their public investment priorities
• Provide tools to better connect with more community members
• Tools for bringing together those who benefit from different investment

Vision 2020 Listens and Teaches

• Solutions to Community Challenges need to address community needs
• Opportunity to engage and influence the policy development process
  • Policy Team
  • Learning
  • Feedback responsibilities
