PREFACE

Publication of Supplements to the Colorado Revised Statutes occurs several months following the end of each regular legislative session. Prior to such publication, the Office of Legislative Legal Services prepares the Digest of Bills and Concurrent Resolutions as required under 2-3-504, C.R.S. The Digest consists of summaries of all bills and concurrent resolutions enacted by the Fifty-eighth General Assembly at its Second Regular Session ending May 6, 1992. The summaries include the dates bills are approved and the effective dates of the bills. The Digest also includes an alphabetic subject index and several reference tables. The Digest is not a substitute for the Colorado Revised Statutes, but gives the user notice of and summary information on recent changes to the statutes.

HOW TO USE THE DIGEST

1. Abbreviated summaries of bills and proposed state constitutional amendments begin on page 7. To determine the page on which the summary of a particular bill may be found, refer to the Conversion Table, page xi.

2. To identify bills by subject area, refer to the bill summaries section for that subject area or the subject index, beginning on page 170.

3. To determine the approval date and the effective date of a particular bill, refer to the information immediately following the bill summary. To determine the effective date, you may also refer to the Conversion Table, page xi.

4. To convert a particular bill number to a chapter number in the Session Laws, refer to the Conversion Table, page xi.

5. To identify bills which were vetoed by the Governor, refer to Table A, page viii.

6. To identify bills which became law without the governor's signature, refer to Table B, page viii.

7. To identify bills which were originally recommended by a 1991 interim committee, refer to Table D, page ix.

8. For statistics concerning the number of bills and concurrent resolutions introduced and passed in the 1992 session compared to the two prior sessions, see the Legislative Statistical Summary, page vii.
Individual copies of enacted bills and concurrent resolutions may be obtained from the Senate Services Office in the State Capitol Building and will also be published in the Session Laws of Colorado 1992.

* Includes the first and second extraordinary sessions of the 58th general assembly.

 A question has been raised concerning the validity of the Governor’s vetoes of Senate Bills 91-131, 91-159, 91-178, and 91-227 and House Bills 91-1028 and 91-1217. Although the Governor filed the bills with the Secretary of State, he did not file his objections within the thirty-day period following adjournment of the General Assembly as required by section 11 of article IV of the state constitution. The Governor filed a lawsuit in the Denver District Court. That court has ruled that the vetoes were invalid. The District Court decision has been appealed by the Governor to the Colorado Supreme Court and the case is currently pending.

H.B. 92-1214 Paternity - establishment for child support enforcement purposes. Requires that in any action brought to establish paternity for child support enforcement purposes the parties use the laboratory designated by the delegate child support enforcement unit for genetic tests or other tests of inherited characteristics, with subsequent testing being determined by the court. Specifies that such testing be paid for by the nonprevailing party on the parentage issue. Eliminates the alleged father's right to a jury trial if the test results indicate a 99% or higher probability of paternity. Requires that the court determine who will have legal custody of the child while paternity is being established.

Allows paternity to be established by default orders issued by the delegate child support enforcement unit under the "Colorado Administrative Procedure Act for the Establishment and Enforcement of Child Support", including allowing default orders to be issued when the obligor fails to take or appear for a blood test without good cause or when the blood tests indicate the obligor is the biological father within a 97% or greater probability and the obligor fails to appear at the negotiation conference and fails to reschedule the negotiation conference. Directs the state board to promulgate rules defining what constitutes good cause for failure to appear at a negotiation conference.
Additionally requires that the default order include a statement that the obligor was determined to be the natural parent of the child, and that the obligee’s verified affidavit regarding paternity and any blood test results be included in the court filing of the default order. Clarifies that service of process in paternity actions may be made by certified mail.

States that the court may adjudicate parentage without joining the child for whom support is sought to the action.

H.B. 92-1230 Child support – changes to guidelines and schedule – orders for health insurance – deviations – update of expenses by custodial parent – shared custody – dependency exemptions. Changes the treatment of health insurance under the guidelines from a deduction from gross income of the parent paying the premium to an adjustment to the basic child support obligation to be shared by both parents in proportion to their respective adjusted gross incomes. Requires the court to order inclusion of a child under a parent’s medical insurance policy.

Defines gross income to account for overtime if overtime is required by the employer as a condition of employment and excludes child support received by a parent in calculating the gross income for that parent. Allows a court to deviate from child support guidelines where their application would be unjust or inappropriate, and requires the court to specify in its findings the presumed amount under the guidelines without a deviation. Lists specific circumstances for deviation from the guidelines.

Permits the court, at the noncustodial parent’s request, to require the custodial parent to submit an annual update of financial information, including information on actual expenses relating to the child for whom support has been ordered, except that such orders may not occur in circumstances where the noncustodial parent has failed to exercise visitation rights, when child support payments are in arrears, or there is documented evidence of domestic violence, child abuse, or violation of restraining orders on the part of the noncustodial parent. Authorizes the court to order costs for preparing a financial information update, and to refer the parties to mediation if the noncustodial parent claims, based upon the financial information, that the custodial parent is not spending the support for the children’s benefit. Requires the party requesting mediation to pay mediation costs.

Revises the schedule of basic child support obligations in the following ways: Adjusts the schedule for combined gross income of $1700 and above to reflect changes in the consumer price index and to reflect changes in federal and state income tax rates and FICA rates since the schedule was created; and increases the upper limit for combined gross income from $10,000 to $15,000.

Directs that separate computations be made for each child rather than a joint computation in split physical custody cases. Makes no change in the formula for shared physical custody other than to express the formula in terms of overnights rather than a percentage of the year. Requires the court to allocate the right to claim an exemption for dependent children for income tax purposes between the parties where the parties have not otherwise agreed on such right. Prohibits a parent from claiming a child as a dependent if he or she has not paid all court ordered child support for that tax year or if no tax benefit would result.

Requires that the child support commission consider economic data on the cost of raising children and analyze case data on applications of and deviations from the guidelines in its review. Repeals language relating to issues about which the commission has already studied and reported.

H.B. 92-1232 Child support - URESA - criminal nonsupport - postsecondary education - modifications - procedures - review of support and maintenance orders - family support registry - appropriation. Makes the following changes to the "Revised Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act": Makes venue proper in any county where a child support order exists; allows an obligor to testify and be cross-examined by telephone at hearings; states that registration of a foreign support order in this state does not confer personal jurisdiction over the person nor subject matter jurisdiction over any issues other than child support and arrearages; provides that a wage assignment may be automatically activated in a RURESA action once the support order is confirmed; and allows for enforcement of orders from jurisdictions within Colorado.

Increases the age for criminal nonsupport of children from 16 to 18 years of age. Requires parties filing for dissolution of marriage or legal separation who have joint legal responsibility for a child for whom support is being sought to indicate whether they or any dependent children have received public assistance within the last 5 years and, if so, requires the court to notify the appropriate delegate child support enforcement unit. States that there shall be no penalty for failure to so notify.

Clarifies that child support orders are to be terminated when a postsecondary education order is entered, and prohibits the court from issuing orders providing for both child support and postsecondary education for the same child regardless of the child’s age. Provides that orders for postsecondary education support may not extend beyond the earlier of the child’s 21st birthday or the completion of an undergraduate degree instead of not extending beyond the child’s 21st birthday. Allows the court to order one parent to pay the other parent room and board if the child resides in the home of the other parent during periods of time in excess of 30 days when school is not in session.

Makes modification of maintenance or child support effective as of the date of the filing of the motion unless it would cause undue hardship or substantial injustice.

Changes the priority of payments of amounts withheld under wage assignments and immediate deductions for family support to the following order: Current monthly child support and maintenance when included in child support orders; medical support; child support debt and arrears; and maintenance only. Requires an employer withholding wages to indicate whether dependent health insurance is available to the obligor and whether the obligor has elected to enroll the dependents in such coverage. Allows wage assignments to be activated at the request of the obligee in IV-D cases pursuant to state procedures.

Allows for electronic service to be used when the state department of social services is acting as the trustee for purposes of an unemployment benefit intercept. Makes a mistake of fact the only defense that an obligor may make in an objection to a wage assignment. Allows the court to stay activation of a wage assignment as to arrears pending a hearing, but allows activation to proceed as to current support obligations.

Extends the date for implementation of immediate income deductions for family support to non-IV-D cases from July 1, 1992, to January 1, 1994. Amends the definition of "good cause" for the purposes of an immediate deduction.

Allows the courts to impose as a condition of probation or parole the requirement to make and fulfill a payment plan for support obligations.

Continues and extends statewide the procedure for review and modification of child support orders. Changes the method of notice to regular mail.

Eliminates the ability of an obligor to request a court hearing when served with a notice of financial responsibility under the "Colorado Administrative Procedure Act for the Establishment and Enforcement of Child Support". Changes the procedure to require that all parents attend a negotiation conference and, if no stipulation is agreed upon and paternity is not an issue, directs the delegate child support enforcement unit to issue a temporary order of financial responsibility pending a court hearing. Clarifies that the unit may use the order of financial responsibility to enter judgment rather than file a separate verified entry of judgment.

Amends the workers' compensation statute to clarify that permanent total disability benefits are subject to wage assignment or garnishment for purposes of enforcement of child support orders. States that, if the underlying judgment for a lien is a judgment for a support obligation, the lien remains in effect for the life of the judgment and does not have to be renewed every 6 years.

Clarifies that the $30 fee for setting up a court registry account to pay support applies to all types of support orders. Authorizes a roll-forward of $272,168 which had been authorized in statute to be appropriated in fiscal year 1991-92 but had not actually been appropriated for the purpose of implementing and operating the family support registry for fiscal year 1992-93.

Appropriates $2,721,680 and 2.0 FTE to the department of social services to implement the family support registry, of which $272,168 is the roll-forward of a previously authorized appropriation and $2,449,512 is from federal funds.

Defines administrative review. Requires counsel of record to be notified and allowed to appear at such administrative review. Requires a juvenile court magistrate to advise the parties that they have the right to object to an order allowing a review of placement of a child to be conducted by the department of social services as an administrative review, and that if a party objects the review will be conducted by the court.

Requires any court order removing a child from the home or continuing a child in a placement out of the home to contain specific findings that the continuation of the child in the home is contrary to the child's best interest, that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent or eliminate the need for removal of the child or that an emergency situation exists, and that reasonable efforts have been made or will be made to reunite the child and the family or that such efforts have failed.

Requires that petitions for dependency and neglect and review of out-of-home placement contain a statement that the court will hold a permanency planning hearing if the out-of-home placement is for a period of 18 months or longer, and that the hearing may result in a change of custody of the child. Requires the court to order the county department of social services to develop a permanency plan for a child and to submit the plan at least 3 working days in advance of the permanency planning hearing.

Requires the department of institutions to conduct an administrative review every 6 months after a juvenile has been placed in foster care by the department. Clarifies that the court may authorize the juvenile parole board to conduct a parole hearing prior to the release of a juvenile from the custody of the department of institutions. Requires the court to appoint a guardian ad litem in all cases of alleged child abuse or neglect.

Retains equalization program funding for 1992-93 budget year at the 1992 transitional budget year level and then further reduces the funding by one-half of one percent to reflect the savings which result from the reduction in the public employees' retirement association (PERA) employer contribution rate for school employees from 12.2% to 11.6%. For the 1993-94 budget year and years thereafter, requires the general assembly, on an annual basis, to adopt the funding components to be used to establish equalization program funding. For the 1992-93 and 1993-94 budget years, authorizes a reduction in the amount budgeted by a school district for capital reserve and insurance reserve, not to exceed $60, and allows the moneys resulting from such reduction to be used for cash flow management or for any lawful purpose that does not commit the district to an expenditure beyond the 1993-94 budget year.

Keeps the local property tax share of total equalization program funding for the 1992-93 budget year at $1,078,000,000. For budget year 1993-94, sets the state's percentage share of equalization program funding at 55.5% and further reduces the state's percentage share for years thereafter to 55%. Requires the department of education to certify the uniform mill levy no later than December 1. Beginning with the 1992-93 budget year, provides that the increase in the mill levy for certain school districts shall be the greater of 4 mills or the increase in the uniform mill levy over the uniform mill levy for the prior budget year plus 4 mills. Clarifies that "hold harmless" districts (those districts whose equalization program funding exceeds the funding for such districts established by the formula) may reduce their funding to not less than the formula amount without losing state aid.

Provides that state aid for the 1992 transitional budget year shall be based upon property taxes collected through August 31, 1992, plus an amount which represents uncollectible taxes and amounts which are eligible for payment from the state contingency reserve. Requires the state treasurer to make loans to school districts which are required to offset excess property tax revenue against state aid in the amount of the difference between the actual property tax collections for each district and 95% of 100% collections for the budget year. Limits the total of such loans to $30 million. Authorizes the state treasurer to transfer the amount necessary for such loans from the capital construction fund to the state public school fund and to return the moneys to the capital construction fund as the loans are repaid by the districts.

To provide additional state revenues to fund equalization program funding for the 1992-93 budget year: Lowers the required state general fund reserve for 1992-93 to 3% of the amount appropriated for expenditure from the general fund minus $14 million; reduces the amount transferred to the capital construction fund on July 1, 1992, from $25 million to $21.1 million; and increases state income tax revenues by applying the 5% flat tax to the federal taxable income adjusted to include the amount of the federal deduction claimed for state income taxes by persons who itemize.

Increases the cap on additional local property tax revenues to 10% of equalization program funding, as determined using the formula, or $200,000, whichever is greater. Requires school districts which have a property tax carryforward remaining after the offset of the carryforward against state aid in the 1992-93 and 1993-94 budget years to either reduce the mill levy for the 1993 property tax year to equal the amount of the district's share of equalization program funding minus the amount of property tax carryforward or, by a 2/3 majority vote of the board of education, to elect to keep the property tax carryforward and not receive state aid until such carryforward is completely used. Provides that carryforward amounts shall be considered in determining whether a district is eligible for a loan under the interest-free loan program.

Makes technical changes in the "Public School Finance Act of 1988" and other statutory provisions to conform to the change in the school district budget year and the change to funding based upon the funded pupil count.

School budget measures. Allows a board of education, upon a 2/3 majority vote taken after at least one public hearing, to declare a fiscal emergency and reduce school district employee salaries or alter the work year of such employees. Extends the time granted to school districts to comply with the increased contingency reserve requirement.

Authorizes district advisory accountability committees to make recommendations to the district board of education regarding prioritization of expenditures of school district moneys. Authorizes school building advisory accountability committees to make recommendations to schools regarding prioritization of expenditures of school district moneys by such school.

Authorizes an additional property tax levy of not more than 2 mills to fund removal of asbestos and hazardous materials and for costs incurred in complying with the "Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990" for property tax years beginning on or after January 1, 1992, but before January 1, 1996. Establishes a special account in the general fund of the district for deposit of such moneys.

Education reform. Requires the Colorado commission for achievement in education to develop a plan for development of local and statewide content and outcome standards and local and statewide performance assessments. Requires a statewide writing performance assessment by 1992 and a statewide math performance assessment by 1993. Requires issuance of a certified diploma by 1996 and requires remedial instruction until mastery or age 21, whichever comes first, for students who have not met the requirements for such diploma.

council to conduct a study of the setting categories for school districts. Creates the public school cost analysis task force to study and analyze the costs and functions of kindergarten through twelfth grade public school education.
