

Students Experiencing Homelessness: A Look at Student Count

PK-12 Students Experiencing Homelessness in Colorado: 2002-2020

Data Source: Colorado Department of Education

*Budget Stabilization Factor

The number of students experiencing homeless in Colorado has increased steadily since 2002. Hitting a peak of more than 16,000 students in 2013-14. The fluctuation in count may be a result of in Colorado school districts report enrollment and provide additional services for their students experiencing homelessness.

The five school districts with highest number of students experiencing homelessness are in the table below:

School District	Number of students
Jeffco	3,135
Adams 12 Five Star	1,955
Aurora Public Schools	1,844
Denver	1,762
Colorado Springs 11	1,168